They're in our prayers

The police officers did great work Monday night in Lapeer. Their fast response probably saved the life of a little boy at his house. It breaks my heart to read that they had been homeless, and now they are again. Let's keep these people in our prayers.

Help for fire victims

We're fortunate to have so many police agencies in town. It paid off Monday night when so many of them responded to the house fire where they saved a little boy who started his room on fire.

I hope they are able to find another home. These are people that need a hand following such a tragic thing.

Tell us what you think

Democrats worked for decades to pass legislation similar to the Affordable Care Act, which President Obama signed in March of 2010. Nearly six years into the act do you feel its has expanded availability and affordability for healthcare or has it become a dangerous expansion of government power?

ronment and our housing values.

Wrong in so many ways

Sorry boys, you won't be getting my money for your popcorn sales. Not if the Boy Scouts are going to thumb their noses at neighbors and dump gravel trucks onto our roads for decades to come. This a big company than an organization that pretends to care about kids.

Get over yourselves

Hey people, do you want better roads? What are roads made from? Gravel.

It has to come from somewhere. Get over yourselves in Metamora, and let the Boy Scouts mine gravel on their own property.

Not another tunnel?

Well, I'm grateful to know that it's a Flint water pipeline project going on at Norway Lake Road and M-24. For the longest time I thought it was another one of those super expensive, unneeded pedestrian under crossings
